We, the staff of the 1979 Campbell Memorial Reveler, wish to take this opportunity to dedicate our efforts in the compilation of this yearbook to our advisor, Mr. John R. Cvengros.

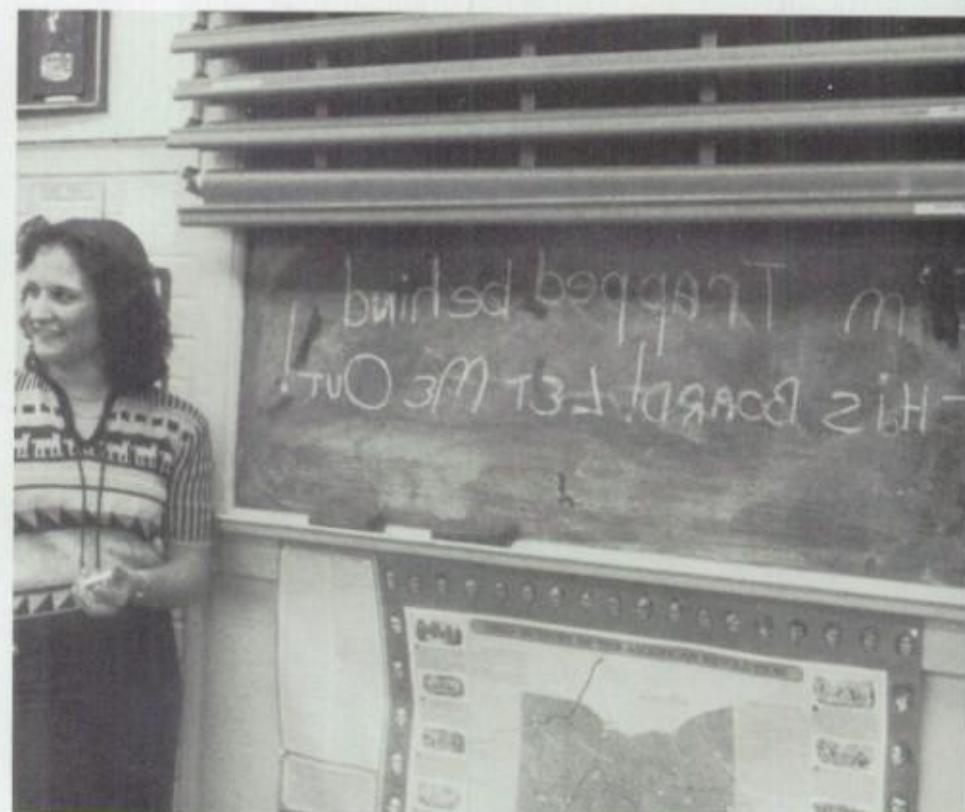

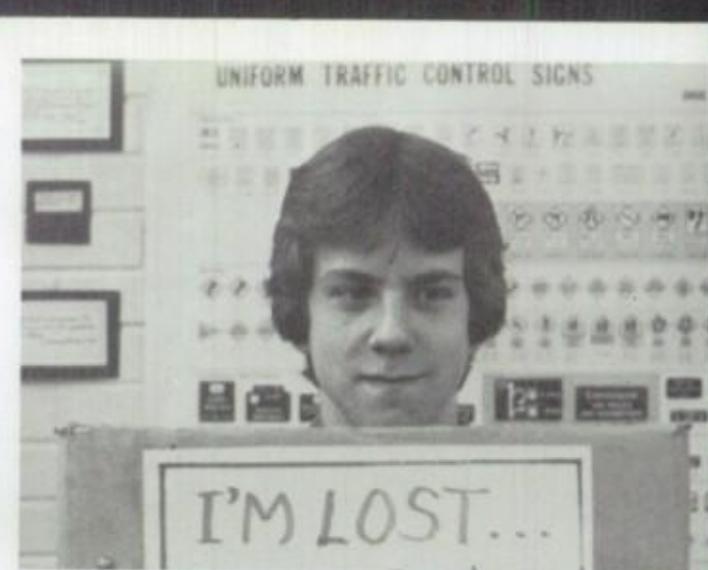

Without his unending care, personal sacrifice, and constant inspiration; our efforts would have been meaningless.

Therefore, we wish to simply, "Thank you" for everything.

*THEY MAKE EACH DAY
A LITTLE BRIGHTER*

Feeding the fish breakfast can be fun.

The many trips to the office for a pass from the secretaries

Schedule problems that were solved by the guidance counselors

Running in the rain, snow, and sunshine to catch the bus

Visiting the nurse to tell her about your boo-boos and tummy aches

Waiting in the long lunch line with a growling stomach

Having all the windows open in class when it's snowing outside because it's so hot inside

Office Aids - Marge Smrek
Mary Evangelista

Nurse - Faith Simko

Guidance Counselor- Miss Eleanor Graban

The "cooks" know what we like best.

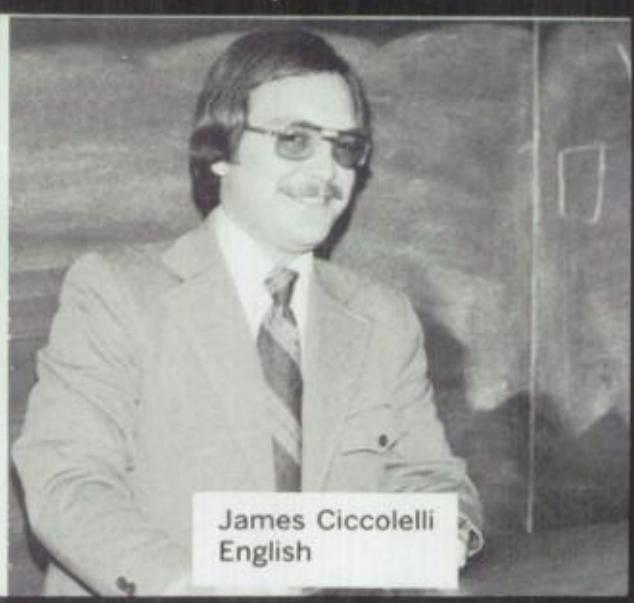

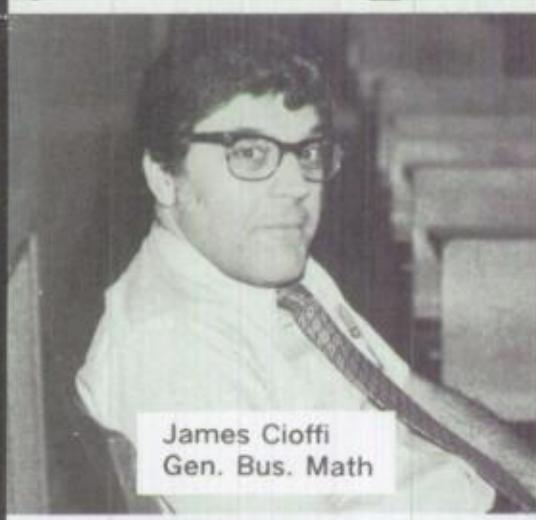

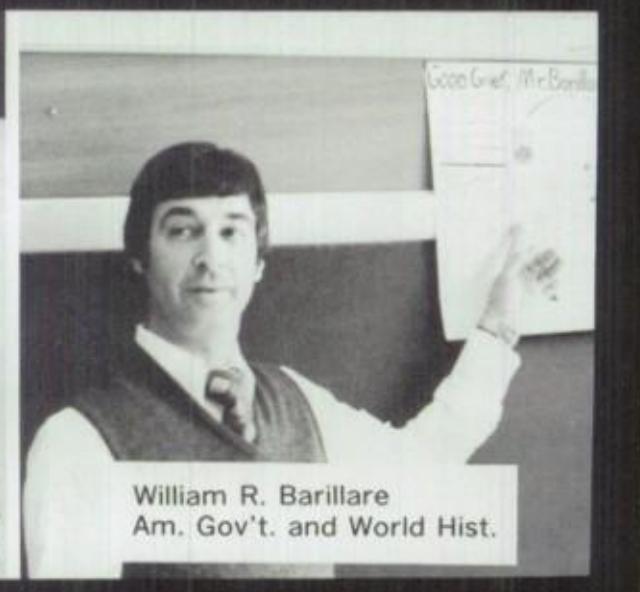

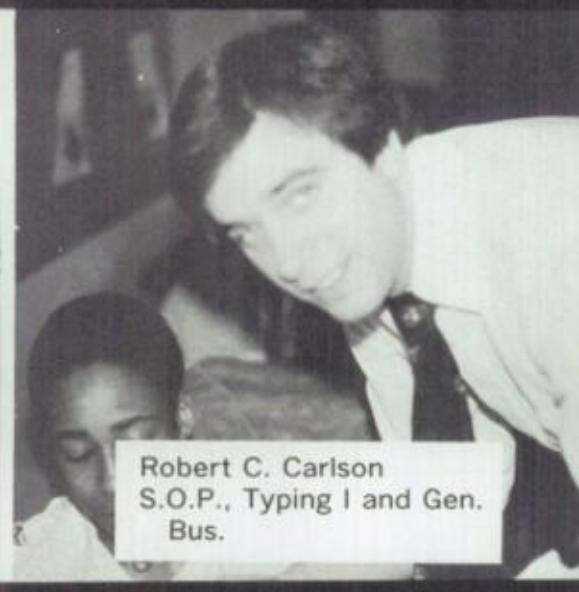

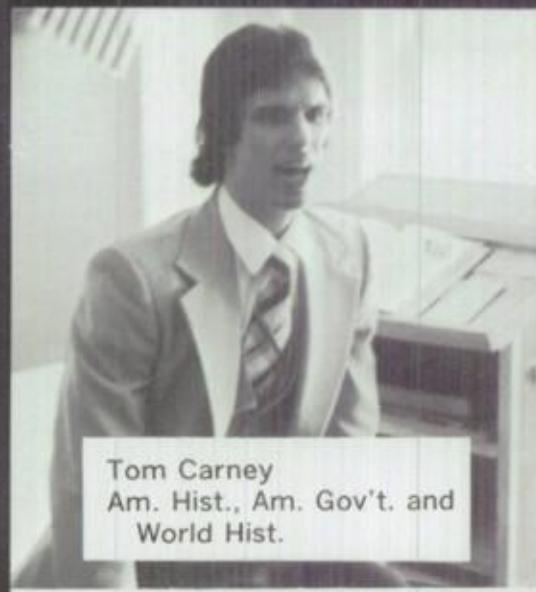

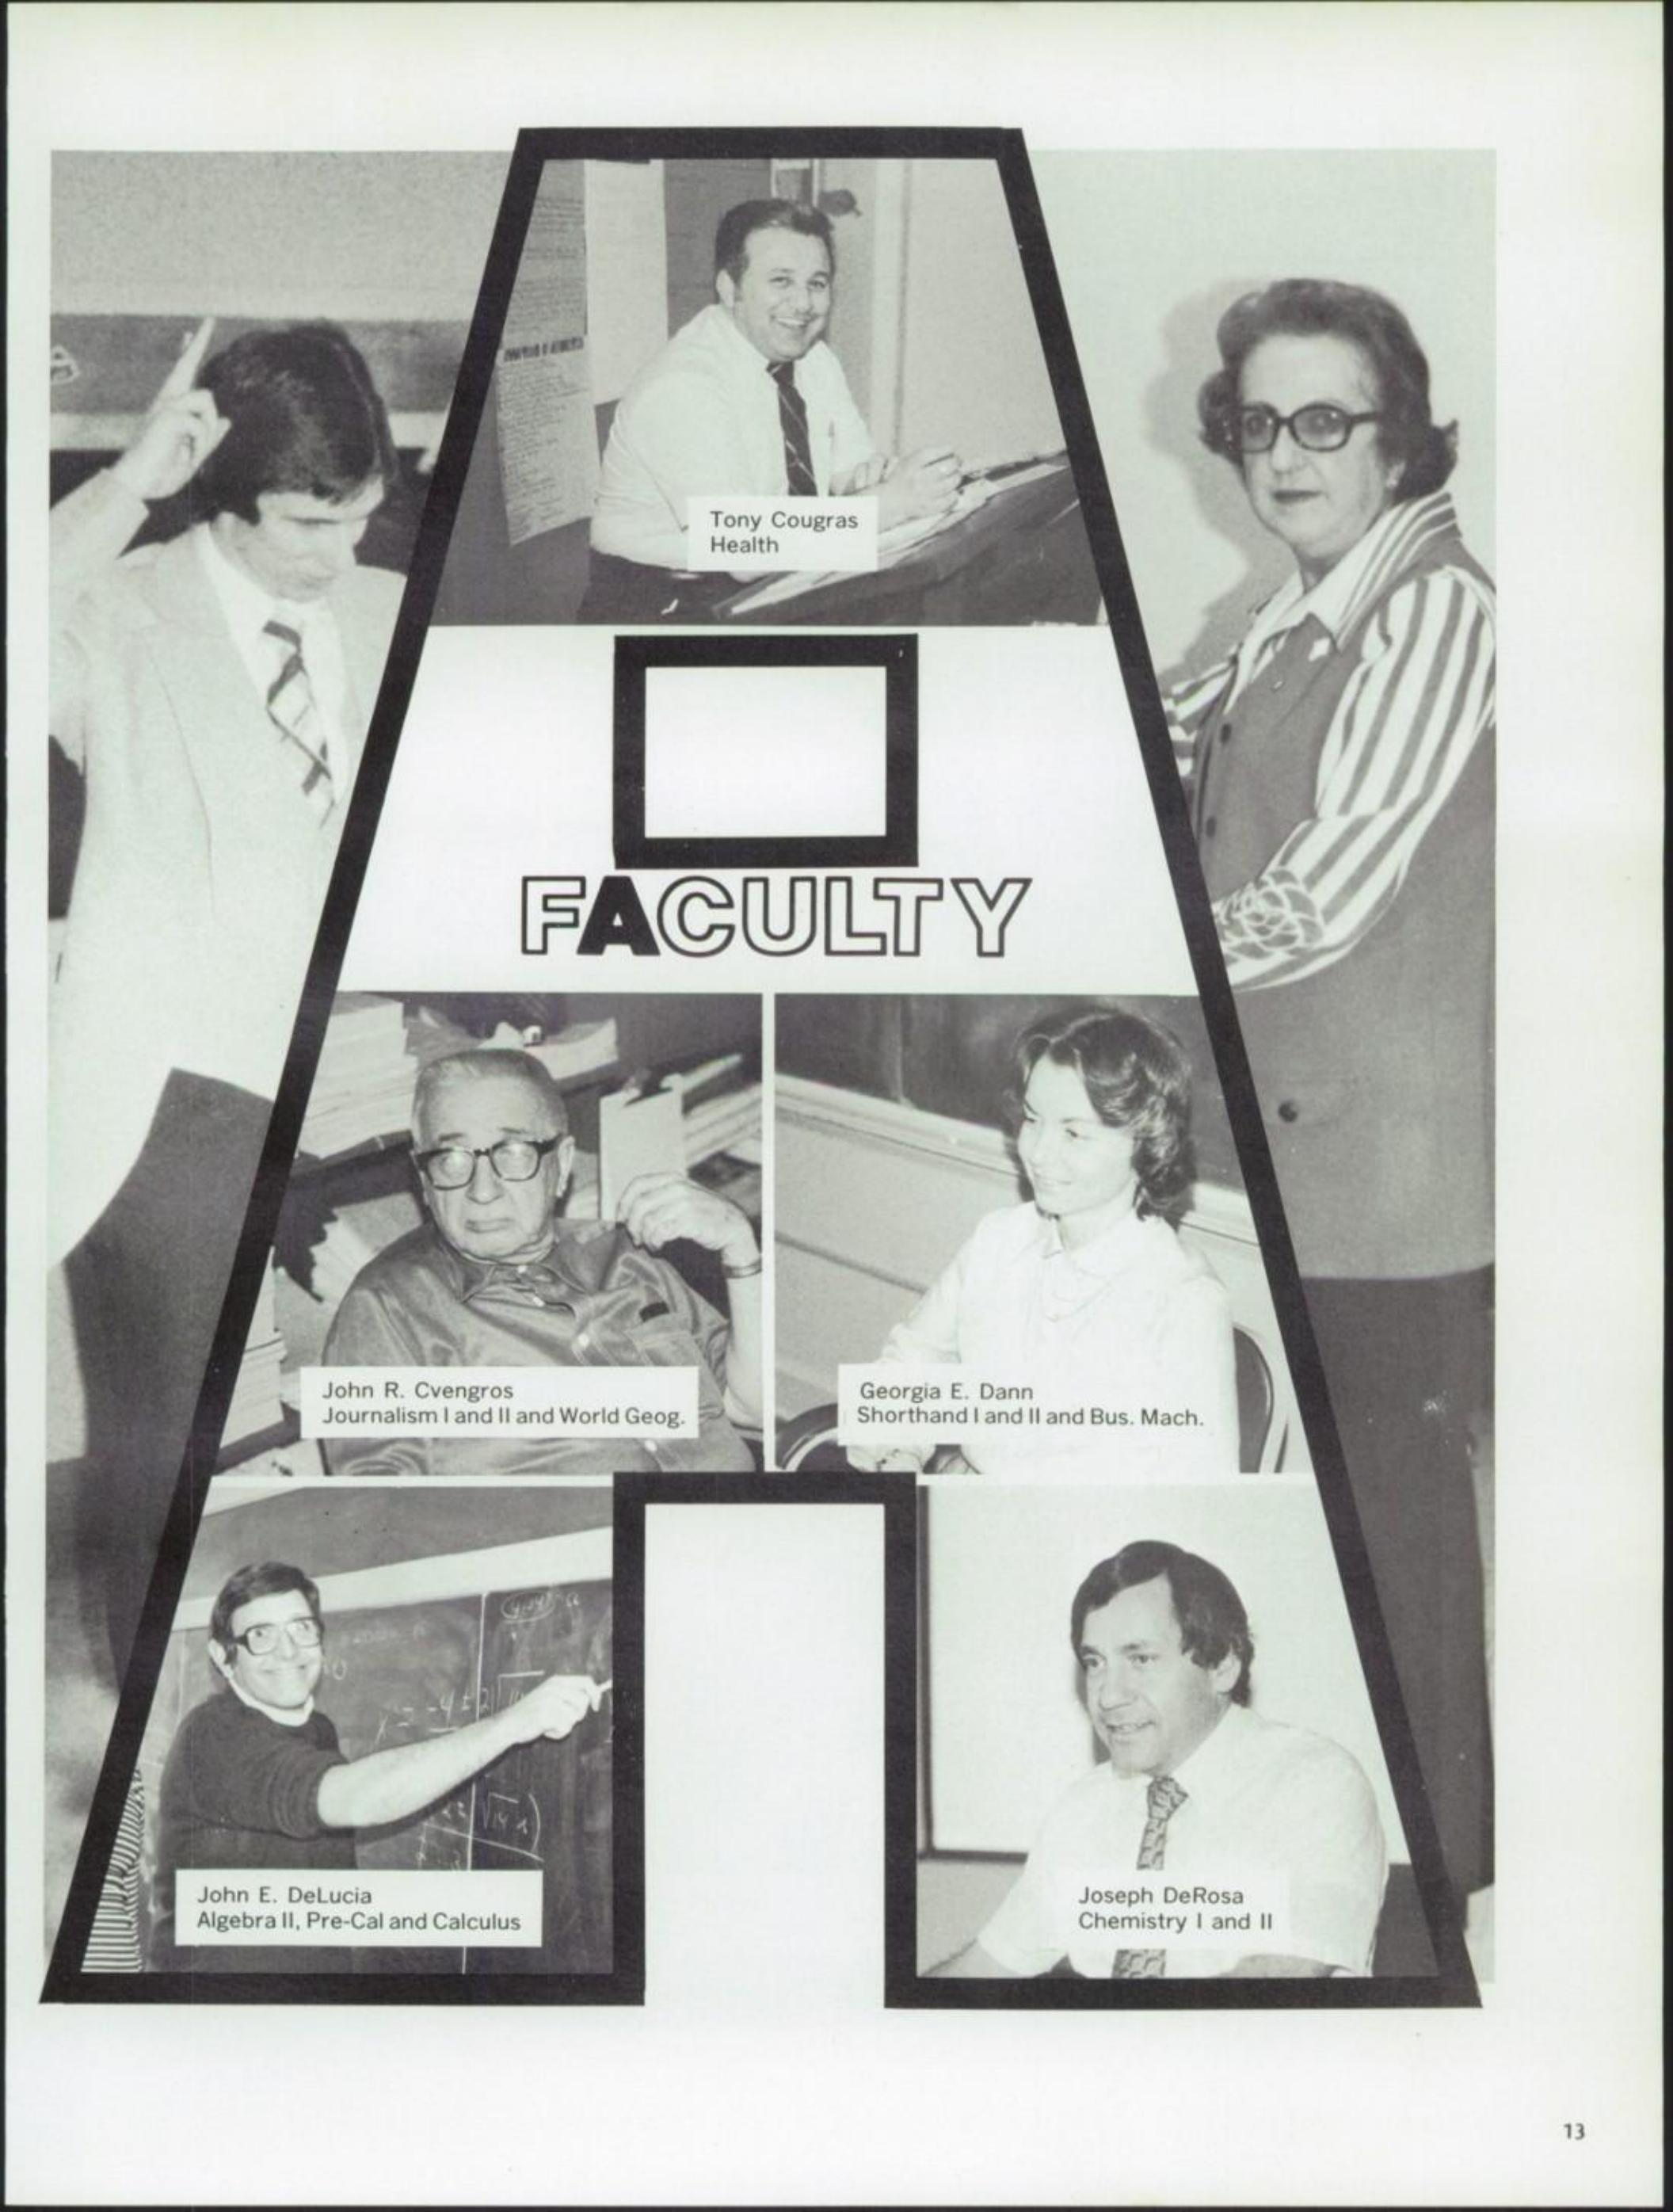

Guidance Counselor- Mr. Dominic Monaco

Those who walked the halls and climbed the stairs—from greenies to graduates—felt the brightness they supplied in daily doses the year long.

Faithful "busdrivers"- on time, everytime!

Freshmen have just started their high school days. They entered the high school raring to go. A few freshmen got lost on their way to classes; but after a few weeks of school, they walked the halls like pros.

The freshmen represented themselves well at the pep assemblies. They made sure every student, teacher, and coach heard them.

The years will pass by quickly and soon these freshmen will be seniors. They will never forget how they ignited with excitement of their first day at the high school.

The "Class of '81" has been exploding with energy and working very hard all through the summer with money-making projects to prepare them for their busy junior year.

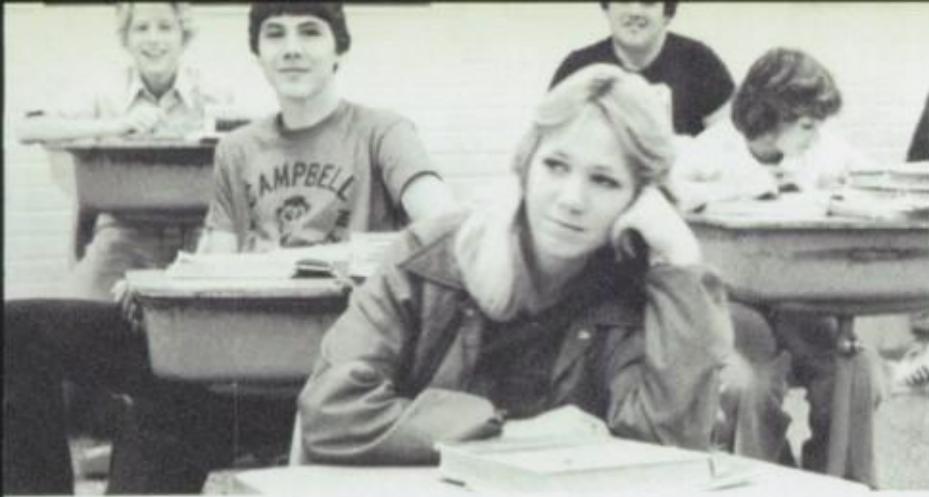

During the annual Fourth of July Festival at Roosevelt Park, the sophomores had a booth where they sold chili dogs, hot dogs, and pop. During the summer, they also had a car wash.

In addition, the sophomores put "a little spice" into the life at Campbell Memorial High School when they had their spice sale in March. This proved to be very successful.

In brief, the "Class of '81" has proved to be an eager group of people at Campbell Memorial working hard to achieve their goals.

Junior Class Sponsor: Mr. Rick Gozur

The junior class began the school year with a surge of energy. This energy led them to achieve their goals. The 1978 Homecoming was one of their main goals. They were responsible for the blasting off of the Homecoming Parade and the crowning of the queen.

Some members of the junior class prepared the Memo which was composed of remarks and opinions of the student body. The juniors had to satisfy the students so no one would explode with anger.

As seconds, minutes, hours, days, and months passed by, the juniors prepared themselves for their greatest goal. This goal is to be dynamite seniors so they may be a success in life.

JUNIORS START ANEW

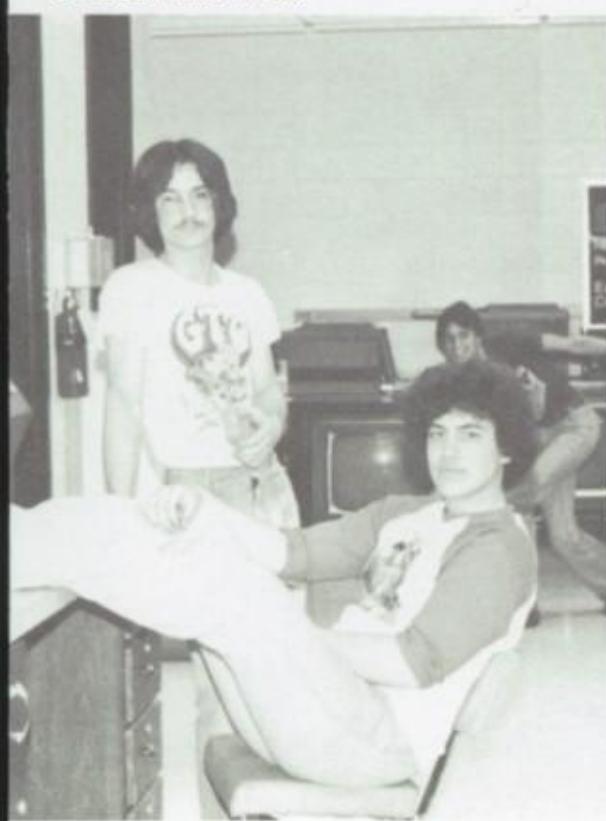

Drop it!

Sit back and relax.

Jeannette enjoys her class.

Can you find it Gus?

Strange
to glance back to reminisce upon those lingering days gone by
OUR DAYS!

Pause now,
and reflect upon your memories
see yourself, then,
along with other passers-by taking that first breath
of foreign air
seeing unfamiliar faces
strange surroundings;
welcoming new experiences with open arms.

Press on up that rocky mountain
that we learn is knowledge,
and watch the runners (old memories)
running by and see yourself in that race, but-not yet knowing the final joy of fulfillment, of fruition
on that final day
OUR DAY!

See the play ending
the curtain closing.
The lights go off-then up again, as we the stars
take our final bows
and then walk off as clear of mind we sigh
that deep
satisfying sigh,
(enjoying the high of it)
while listening to TOMORROW's voice
whispering in our ears,
"Join me in hope
child of faith-and do not FEAR ME!"

SENIOR OFFICERS LIGHT THE FUSE

Dear "Class of 79"

Did you ever watch a little child at play- not a trouble or care in the world. Was it so terribly long ago that you were that way? Is this what "growing up" is all about? That "child" in us must be replaced by another person- A responsible and decisive "adult"; ready to make important decisions about job, college, and marriage. These decisions will affect the quality of the rest of your life. You are now at that stage and I pray that we, the faculty, have helped develop the skills in you necessary to make these decisions.

Some of you feel your education is over, but I am sure most of you recognize it is just beginning and will continue throughout your life time.

Many of you will hold fond memories of your days at Memorial because of your personal involvement with our class over the last four years. You will always have those special stories to tell. I would like you to know I also hold fond and special memories of you, for I have learned and experienced much in my two and a half years as your class sponsor.

Congratulations and much happiness to all of you.

SALUTATORIANS

To be able to participate in your commencement exercises is a very special and memorable experience. One many high school students await. Eight seniors received special honors at the ceremony held on June 1. Sharing this spotlight were four valedictorians and four saluditorians. Christine Wallace, Dianne Gulu, Stephen Sferra, and Mark Libertin were awarded for their outstanding academic achievement. They maintained a 4.0 average throughout the four years of their high school career. The Saluditorians honored were Mary Beth Korchnak, Jeanine Bohazi, Irene Maillis, and Ursula Marenkovic. Each of whom obtained a high school average of 3.9 or better. This outstanding academic second was accompanied by personal involvement in several extracurricular activities in which performance equalled that in the classroom. These eight seniors reflected their learning in the ideas expressed in their commencement speeches.

OUR DAY HAS COME

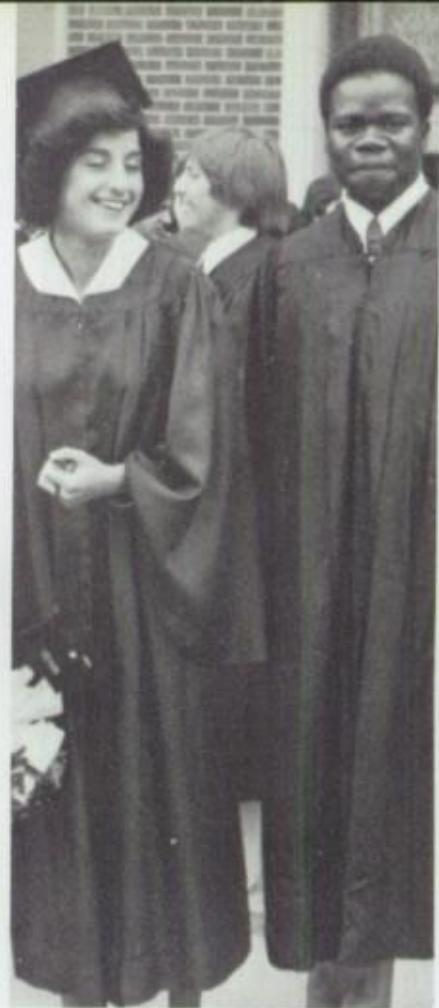

The only thought passing through the minds of the seniors during commencement practice was that of keeping in step with the drum beat. But on Friday, June 1, at 6:00 p.m. in the Campbell Memorial Stadium, that thought faded away and a new one was born. This new thought was that today was the day—the day each senior strived for, impatiently waited for, and finally reached.

June 1 will surely be a day to remember. It was the day when the speaker system broke down during the speeches and impatient seniors waited to receive their diplomas (only later to run off the field in the rain).

The rememberance of this day will last forever in our friends', teachers', relatives', parents', and especially in our minds. This day was the start of a new beginning.

SENIORS PLAY AROUND

The Phantom strikes again!

Eat, Drink and be Dead!

Charles Devil never use the front door.

Marie and David have a lot to talk about after their long awaited reunion.

Aunt Abigail is helped to her chair by Marie and Chives, the butler.

Aunt Abigail tells the family and detectives about the annual Shropshire costume party.

The Seniors of Campbell Memorial under the direction of Mrs. Louisa Miller presented "The Prime Time Crime" on April 6, 1979. The basic plot concerns the rich and eccentric Aunt Abigail Shropshire (Stephanie Ginnis) who is reported to be dying. All the greedy relatives have gathered at the manor hoping to inherit the huge fortune, except for her devoted niece, Marie (Terry Matash). Also, Marie's lover David (Mark Libertin) has come back to marry Marie. In the meantime a Phantom is on the loose killing the heirs. Various detectives are called in to solve the case such as Charlie's Devils, Kojacket, Borrota and Kung Soo Priest. At the end, the detectives solve the mystery and it so happens that Marie's long lost father is actually the butler, Chives (Ralph Lewis) and also the deadly Phantom.

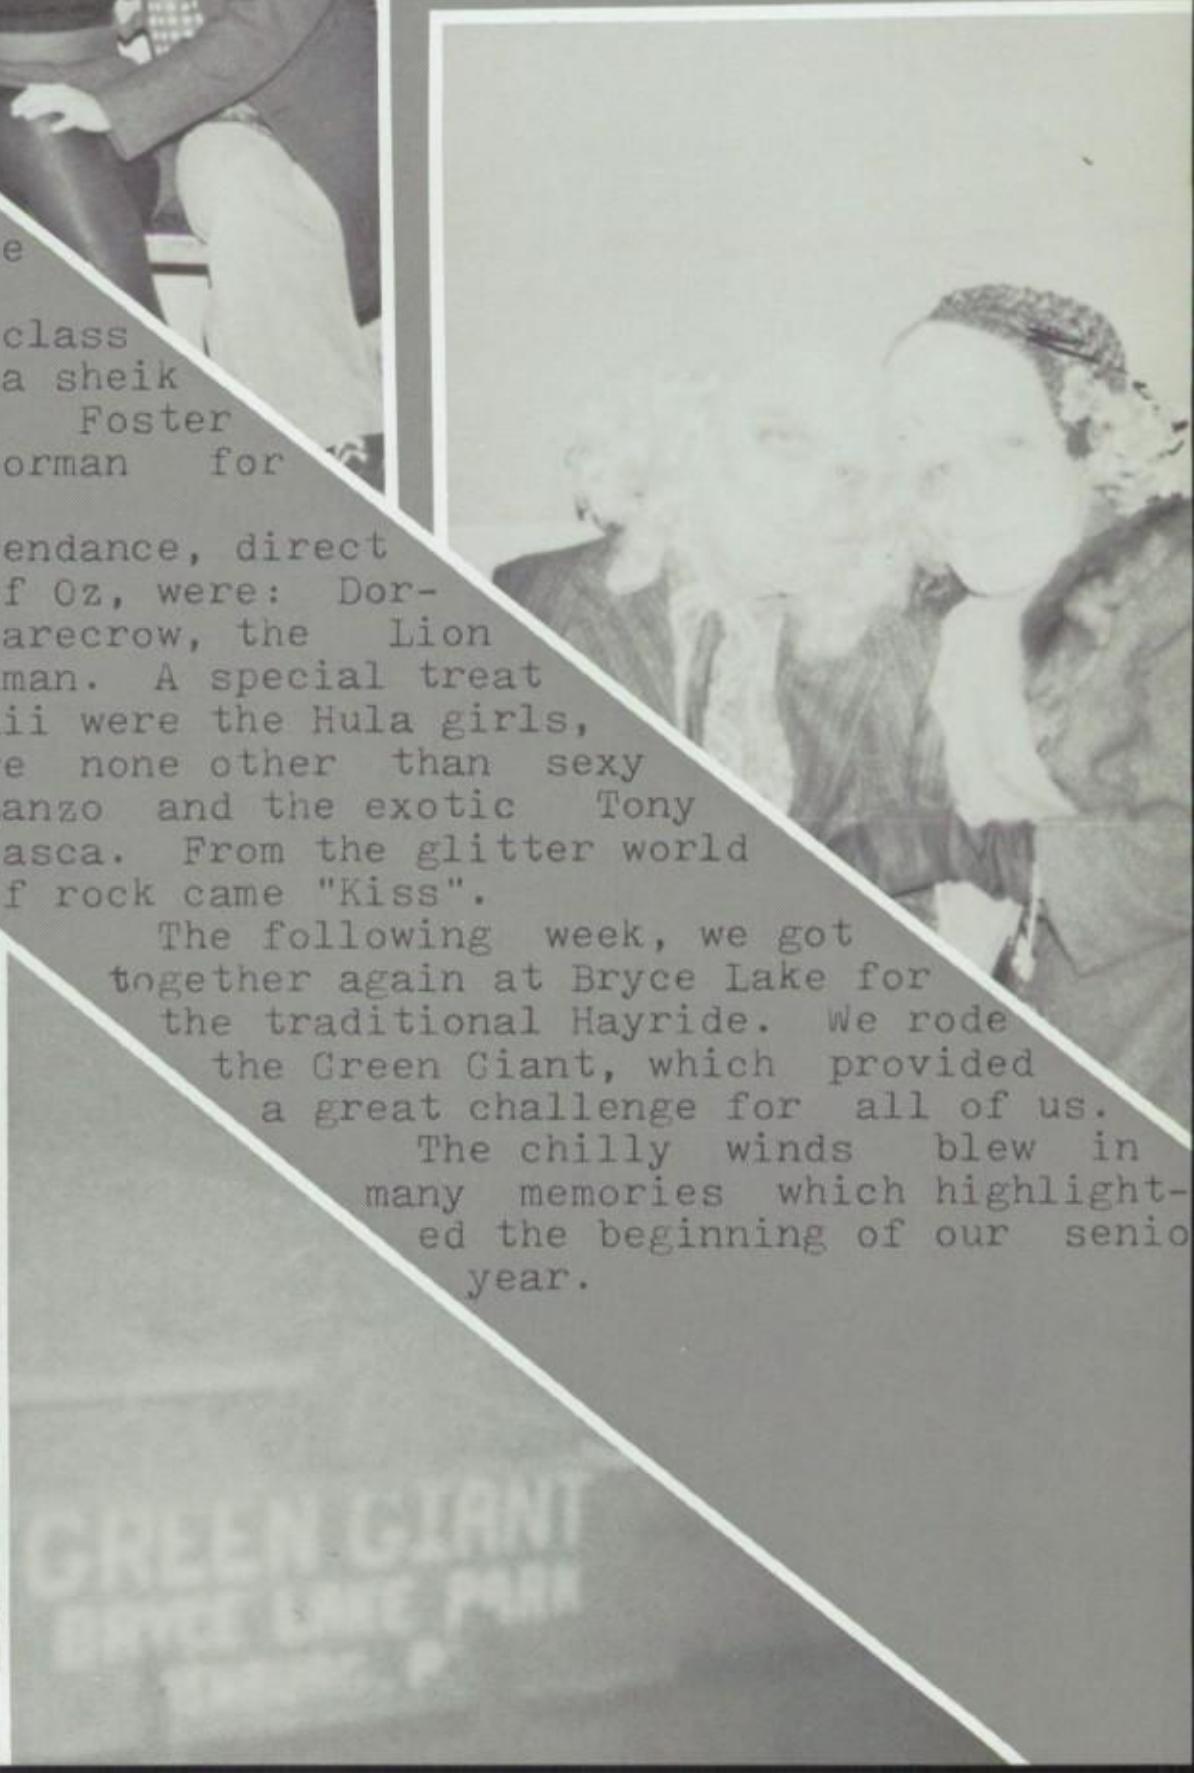

This Halloween, the witches stirred a special brew. . . our Senior Halloween party. Over one hundred of the scariest people in the class attended to make it "howling" success. Part of the fun was trying to guess who was behind the many elaborate costumes that added to the eerie scenery of the willow Ranch.

Russell Brodnan, our class president, dressed as a sheik hiding behind those Foster Grants served as a doorman for the evening.

Also in attendance, direct from the Land of Oz, were: Dorothy, the Scarecrow, the Lion and the Tinman. A special treat from Hawaii were the Hula girls, who were none other than sexy Don Lanzo and the exotic Tony Falasca. From the glitter world of rock came "Kiss".

The following week, we got together again at Bryce Lake for the traditional Hayride. We rode the Green Giant, which provided a great challenge for all of us.

The chilly winds blew in many memories which highlighted the beginning of our senior year.

DANGER: CLASS OF '70,

WARNING: GRADUATES

One event that can not be overlooked when recalling our Senior Year is the day of the Senior Picture at Mill Creek Park. This day may not mean much to the other 700 students of Campbell Memorial but to those of us who drove through Mill Creek Park for hours, it holds many memories. We dedicate this second picture to those Seniors.

WILL THE CROWN?

On Thursday, the 28th of September, the sophomore, junior, and senior boys were given the privilege of choosing their candidates for the 1978 Homecoming Court. Tension was mounted on every senior girl's face as they tried to sneak a peek at the ballot of the boy sitting next to them during homeroom. Friday seemed to drag on and on. The usual pep assembly seemed different. A suspenseful atmosphere hung heavily the heads of the senior section. Cheers were chanted but the words seemed to hold little significance. Everyone anticipated the outcome of Thursday's election. Minutes hung like hours but the time finally came for the announcement. The junior class president stood before the student body to exclaim the words everyone longed to hear. The students applauded enthusiastically as the five victorious girls, Darlene Johnson, Lisa Marino, Diane Ciccolelli, Jennifer Fiorini, and Diane Dubos stepped onto the stage to face those who made their dreams come true.

LISA, OUR QUEEN

Above: Lisa Marino becomes the recipient of many kisses throughout the evening.

The familiar tunes of the marching band marked the beginning of the Homecoming Parade. This was the spark which ignited the fuse of the night's events that lead up to the explosion of joy when the 1978 Homecoming Queen was chosen. Even the continuous rainfall failed to place a damper on the ceremonial proceedings. The parade route was cluttered with the citizens of Campbell, each attempting to catch a glimpse of the lovely candidates as they rode past.

The fuse burned steadily and the parade gave way to the pre-game activities. The girls were chauffeured onto the 50 yard line where they were greeted by their escorts. While being accompanied to their designated positions on the football field, the candidates and their escorts were introduced to the audience. It was at this time that the girls were awarded their gifts. As a result, the anxious photographers took advantage of the situation by snapping a plentiful amount of candid shots.

As the fuse grew shorter and shorter, so it was with the time left before the announcement everyone was waiting for. The tension rose like thick smoke from the stands where people were clustered together under umbrellas, all awaiting the results. The band serenaded the spectators softly as the 1977 Homecoming Queen, Miss Gina Zinghini, appeared from the background. Holding the crown, she walked around the girls and finally placed it upon the head of Miss Lisa Marino. Shouts of both joy for the new Queen and relief that the suspense was over were expressed. Lisa was then arrayed with more gifts and kisses.

SENIORS CELEBRATE

The 1978 Senior Spaghetti Dinner was held in our cafeteria on April 14. To make the Senior Spaghetti Dinner a success, much preparation and hard work was put into it. The evening began with the usual voting for King and Queen and the serving of the traditional dinner of spaghetti. The seniors attended were served by junior guys and girls who volunteered to make the dinner a success.

After the dinner had ended, all sat back and awaited the announcement of the King, Queen, and Court. To the surprise, excitement, and applause of all, a joyful Belinda Fiorini was crowned Queen and Louie Sertich King. The Court consisted of Helen Poullas and Tony Marino — first attendants, Janet Billec and David Korchnak — second attendants, Gina Zinghini and Jim Schrieber — third attendants, and Cindy Manno and John Cox — fourth attendants.

After the crowning, the presentation of trophies, and the congratulations ended, the seniors danced to the music of Atlantis.

On Valentines Day cupid took aim at Campbell Memorial High School, hitting every guy in the school just in time to vote for the sweetheart queen and her court. The votes were tallied and the final results were known. The lucky girls were: Freshmen Michelle Congemi, Lisa Tabus, and Janice Kozusko; Sophmores Kathy Vansuch, Mary Ann Lopez, and Cindy Fiorini; Juniors Norma DiPiero, Cathy Cougras, and Darla DiPienzo; Seniors Diane Dubos and Ursula Marenkovic. Each girl designed and decorated her own valentine box which was put on display during the lunch periods for admirers to drop their change in their favorite sweetheart's box. After days of suspense, the Reveler Staff organized an assembly to announce the queen and her court. One by one the name of the four class finalists were announced. Freshman Lisa Tabus, Sophomore Mary Ann Lopez, Junior Cathy Cougras, and Senior Ursula Marenkovic. The tension rose through the auditorium as the time came to reveal the school sweetheart and her court. The voice of the announcer echoed in the auditorium over the silence of the impatient listener. FUN IN THE SUN

Say CHEESE

After dancing the night away at the prom, the juniors and seniors that attended spent a fun-filled day under the sunny skies at Cook's Forest State Park. The couples faced the challenges of the wilderness. Those who participated in the canoeing found that it was virtually impossible to dodge every rock without tipping the canoe over. They also discovered the wrong way to hit the rapids is with your canoe turned sideways. Other couples tested their horse riding skills. They found out the hard way that total control of your horse can not always be obtained. Besides these activities many couples were engaged in whip cream fights, water fights, and frisbee throwing contests. But, the most important asset of the day was the captured memories that will be cherished forever.

Numerous activities keep everyone busy.

We're finally here!

The Key Club is a community service organization sponsored by the East Side Kiwanis. Headed by John R. Cvengros, the club has contributed time and effort in helping the school, community, and local organizations. The club is responsible for the marquee in the front of the high school which bears seasonal quotes and game schedules. They have attended numerous Kiwanis meetings as well as the Kiwanis annual convention held in Cleveland. The Campbell police crime prevention program, a community project, was uplifted through the literature distributed by the club within the city. Other projects were also accomplished - the collection of Thanksgiving baskets for needy families, mission baskets, and collecting for St. Jude's Children's Hospital. Community concern is a vital portion of the club's function.

Helping to spread cheer throughout CMHS, the Pep Club filled the halls with spirit. The Seniors originated the array of crazy antics displayed every Friday, with the underclassmen following closely behind. Before long, "Pride", "We Will Win", and "Hit" tee-shirts flooded the halls. Rolled up jeans with stripped red and black socks became a part of the dress code. Mysterious signs appearing in front of the school, snappy slogan buttons and rowdie behavior combined to show our team will never stand alone. The Pep Club led the celebrations of victory and the comfort during defeat.

In May 1978, the National Honor Society of Campbell Memorial, had its annual assembly that inducted twenty five new members. This year was the first time in our school's history that the N.H.S. inducted six additional members in November, into their elite circle.

With the assistance of their advisor, Mr. Dominic Monaco, the N.H.S. sold decals, posters, and winter caps. They also donated and decorated the school's traditional Christmas trees. N.H.S. was also responsible for cafeteria and office Christmas decorations, plus sponsoring a home room door decorating contest.

Membership in N.H.S. is highly prized and its induction ceremony highlights the academic season.

Instead of using the usual chemical ingredients to create an explosion, the 1978-79 dancing majorettes used physical ingredients. They combined such ingredients as kicks, twists, smiles and other physical movements while dancing to such tunes as "Run Around Sue", "Bugle Call Ragg", "Peg", "Disco Inferno" and "Sgt. The Pep Band warms up before the game

The Campbell Memorial Marching Band started its season in the middle of summer with early morning practices. They continued at Thiel College for band camp. There they had lots of fun attending various sessions to learn how to march and play numerous popular tunes which made the band so famous. They were then ready for their first halftime performance which proved to be dynamic. Their success continued to shine as the year went along. This success can be partially credited to Mr. Haring, the band director, but it is also due to the members whose long hours of dedication proved to be worthwhile.

The roving reporters of Campbell Memorial High School, also known as the Memo staff, can be seen all through the day roaming the halls in search of interesting and important news. They always seem to capture the spirit of the school in their sports articles and in their photography. Many hours are devoted each week by this sixteen member staff to give us one of the best school newspapers around. It is a pleasure to read such a paper especially when one know that it is "published for and by Campbell Memorial students".

JUNIOR VARSITY GAINS EXPERIENCE

With an overflow of talent on this year's varsity, the JV's, for the first time in years, fielded a respectable squad. Although winless in their first six games, the reserves got plenty of consolation in a triumphant victory over Fitch. Several players gained considerable experience and will step into varsity jobs next season.

A sturdy defense awaits the opposition.

FROSH PREPARE FOR FUTURE

Under the guidance of head coach Rick Gozur and assistant John Ciccolelli, the Memorial Freshmen football team finished the 1978 season with a respectable two wins and five losses. Out of only one game until the very end, the Freshmen squad provided their few faithful fans with plenty of exciting action. Coach Gozur took a page from an outdated playbook and installed an old-fashioned Single Wing offense. The result was a sometimes explosive offense that kept defenses thoroughly confused. It may have worked if the offense wasn't just as confused! When the season had ended, football was over for some. For others a career of varsity football loomed ahead.

Captain Bob Sferra awaits toss of coin.

They were indeed, "A team to believe in"! The inspired brand of football played by the 1979 Memorial Red Devils made believers of the entire school and the community as well.

A fresh enthusiasm seemed to permeate the student body. Schoolwork on Fridays became nothing more than a myth. Cheers and songs were heard in the hallways from morning right to assembly time. T-shirts were sold and badges and signs were made. Cheering in the cafeteria was no longer a thing of the past. Assemblies were once again loud. In fact, several of them were ear-shattering. The Red Devils gave a new genuine meaning to the dying term "School Spirit". Yes, Campbell finally had a Steel Valley contender to be proud of.

The players and coaches alike carried this enthusiasm right onto the playing field. The Devils displayed a new, aggressive style, typical of first year head coach Ed Rozum. This new style of play produced the most successful team Campbell has enjoyed since 1971 . . .

..... Defense once again established itself as the pride of the Red Devils. This hard-hitting, physical crew well deserved their nicknames of Black and Blue Wrecking Crew.

The offensive line performed just as well. They lived up to their title of Big Red Machine by churning out over 200 yards a game.

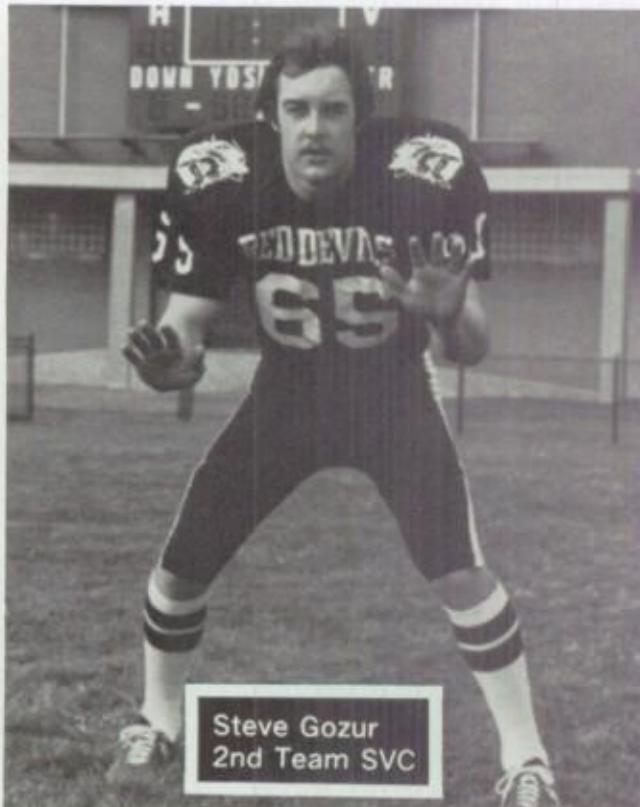

The success of the 1979 season cannot merely be measured by wins and losses. Instead, the overall excitement generated by this year's team would be a much better determining factor. For a nine week period, from September to November, Campbell Memorial truly experienced "Devilmania". Several rousing pep assemblies, a number six ranking in the state and a triumphant victory over Cardinal Mooney were the main highlights of a spectacular season.

Yes, the 1979 Memorial Red Devils will be a team that is not soon forgotten by students and fans. The Red Devils truly made believers of all of us.

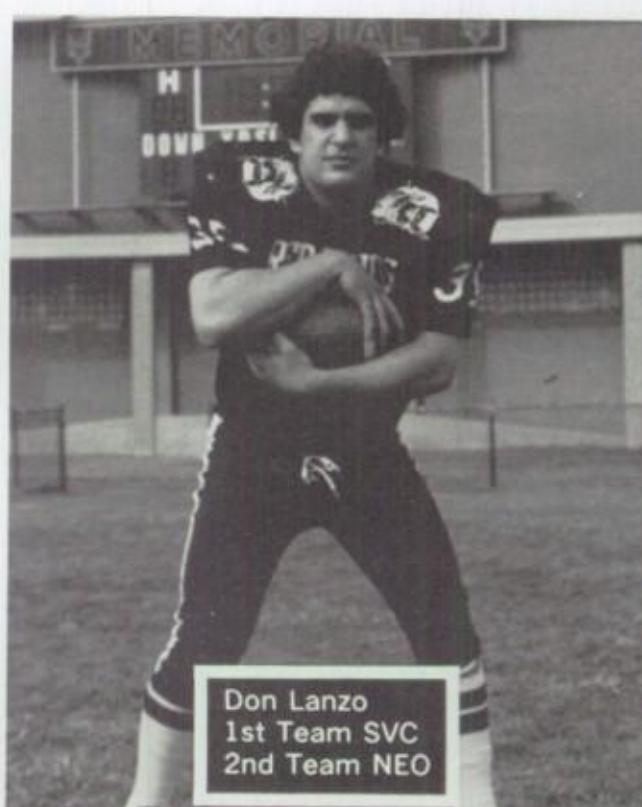

THEY LEAD BY EXAMPLE

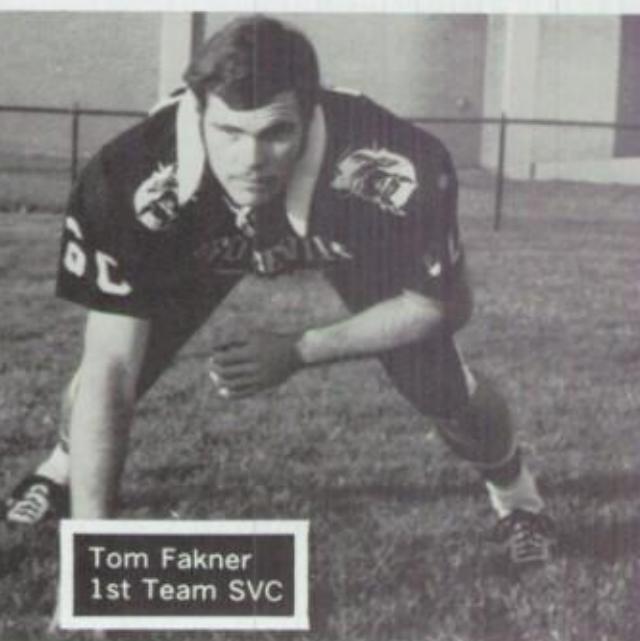

Reflecting on the success of the 1979 Memorial football team, one cannot help but realize the credit which is deserved by this season's banner crop of seniors. Led by All-Steel Valley selections Mike Masajlo, Don Lanzo, and Tom Fakner on offense and Steve Gozur and Young Tensley on defense, the '79 seniors provided the leadership and experience which is so integral in a winning season. This group of seniors can claim a direct responsibility for reversing the fortunes of Campbell football. Thus, a final congratulations and farewell to the seniors of '79.

The secret behind the success of the 1978 football team is this man, rookie head coach Ed Rozum. It is Coach Rozum who deserves credit for the fiery, determined attitude possessed by this year's football team. His aggressive, take charge style of coaching was the style of play he demanded and received from his team. On Friday nights he could be seen leading the team in cheers from the sidelines as well as performing his coaching duties.

Yes, he looks tough and he coaches tough. But his greatest asset is his good rapport with his players. They wanted to play for him and play for him they did! The winning record of this year's team is proof of that fact.

The 1978 season may long be remembered as the year the fortunes of Campbell football turned around, but it will equally be remembered as as the year Ed Rozum emerged from the shadows and was no longer a secret.

EIGHT PROVES GREAT FOR CAGERS

The mixture of youth and inexperience is not usually the combination desired for a successful basketball season. With six juniors among the eight regulars, and only one varsity player returning from the previous year, the 1979 Memorial basketball team possessed both qualties. Strangely, though, the Red Devils finished with quite a successful season. The Devils ended with a 6-3 Steel Valley record, good for fourth place, and a 7-12 record overall.

A rotating line-up of eight regulars was employed by head coach John Shadonix, who cited such a team concept as the key to a successful season. Standing out, though, was Most Valuable Player, Bryant Gillespie, who topped the Conference in rebounds and was selected to the second team, All-SVC.

Baseball is one of the popular sports at Memorial High School. This can clearly be seen by the many followers that the team has. The 1979 team performed well throughout the season. The two seniors who contributed their time and effort through the past four years were Anthony DeFelice and Mark Lysowski. The team coach was Mr. Kish; and assisting him was Mr. Barillare. The future baseball team is said to have a bright future.

Assets were many and problems few for the 1979 Boys Track Team. Under the excellent leadership of the coaching staff, headed by Dennis Katsaras, the team put forth its best stride and ended its season with a 3 and 3 record.

The team claimed as their own 6th, 3rd, and 5th places respectively in the Ward Invitational, Dover Invitational, and Steel Valley meets. Advancing as far as State finals was Rick Weaver, capturing 11th place in the 100 yard dash and 8th place in the Long Jump.

The 1980 track squad, says Coach Katsaras, has much success ahead of them.

The Girl's Track Team performed well throughout their entire 1979 season. They were coached by Mr. Robert Carlson. Because this was his first year of coaching, his opinion of the future team is that it possesses fine talent.

The girls practiced hard everyday after school, and all of their practice paid off in the end. The girls placed fourth out of eight schools in the Steel Valley meet held in Struthers. Many of the team members also advanced to districts and placed sixth overall.

And they're off!

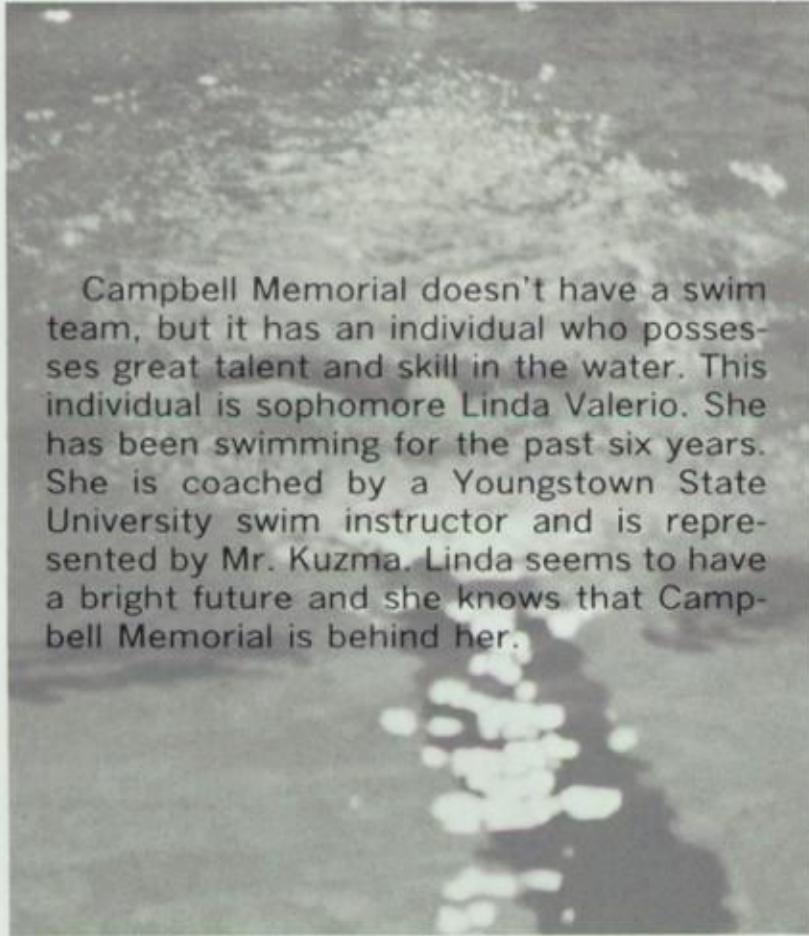

Tiresome practices full of long periods of running, breath coming in gasps, sore muscles, and complete exhaustion were the preparation for the Campbell Memorial Cross Country Team. The attitude to keep going even if their body is aching, is a quality of a good runner. Our team, coached by Mr. Shadonix, contained much talent throughout their season. Senior Brian Danilov has done an excellent job by being the number one runner. The team, small but mighty, is very hard working and talented.

Keep up that pace . . .

Campbell Memorial doesn't have a swim team, but it has an individual who possesses great talent and skill in the water. This individual is sophomore Linda Valerio. She has been swimming for the past six years. She is coached by a Youngstown State University swim instructor and is represented by Mr. Kuzma. Linda seems to have a bright future and she knows that Campbell Memorial is behind her.

The "Arnold Palmers" of the Memorial High School did an excellent job during the 1978 golf season. Our boys' golf team possessed a lot of talent on the course and on the putting greens. Leading this years team was Ron Maceyko who won the MVP award for the last two years. According to Coach Pacella, the 1979 team is something to look forward to.

Coach Pacella gives a few helpful tips.
